The French Silver Half Lewis of the new Species, weighing proportionably, to pass at Two Shillings and Nine Pence.

The French Silver Quarter Piece of the new Species, weighing proportionably, to pass at Sixteen Pence Half Penny.

And in Case any of the aforesaid Pieces of Gold or Silver shall want of the respective Weights herein before mentioned, then Allowance is to be given of Two Pence for each Grain so wanting in any Piece of the kinds of Gold aforesaid respectively, and Three Half Pence for each Half Penny Weight so wanting in any Piece of the kinds of Silver aforesaid respectively, and so proportionably for every greater want of Weight in the said Pieces, and in Case such defect of Weight as aforesaid shall be supplied in Manner as aforesaid, then and in such Case, every Piece so defective in the Weight as aforesaid, and that defect of Weight so supplied as aforesaid, is to be henceforth allowed, and to pass in all Payments as well to and from Her Majesty as otherwise howsoever as Current Money as aforesaid.

And We do hereby Declare, That all the aforesaid Coins being standing Weight, are to pass and be paid and received at the Rates herein above mentioned, and that any such Coins not weighing down the Scales shall not be any cause for the refusal thereof at the Rates aforesaid, and that Persons receiving any of the said Coins, shall receive the same by what side of the Scale he pleases, in case he makes use of the Scales of the Payer, but if he uses his own, he shall receive by that side which the Payer shall think fit to direct.

And for ascertaining the Weight of the said several Coins before mentioned, and of the several Gold Coins made Current by Proclamation dated the Thirtieth Day of July, 1712.

We have directed all the Money Weights that are necessary for the said respective Coins to be exactly made by Vincent Kidder of Dublin, Goldsmith, according to the Standard of the Weights formerly Lodged with the Chief Baron of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, each Weight to be Stamped with the Harp, and the Number of the Penny weights Grains and Mites it bears on one Side, and the Queen's Arms on the other Side, where the same are to be had at reasonable Rates, not exceeding Fifteen Pence for all the said Weights, being six in Number, for the Coins made Current by this Proclamation, and Fifteen Pence for the Weights for the Gold Coins made Current by the Proclamation of the Thirtieth of July, 1712.

And for preventing any Deceit hereafter, We have Ordered one of the Standards for all sorts of the said Weights to be Lodged with the Clerk of the Council, another with the Chief Baron of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and a third with the Receiver General of Her Majesty's Revenue in this Kingdom, by whom the same are to be left in Succession with the next succeeding Clerk of the Council, Chief Baron and Receiver General, to the end that all Differences that shall happen about the said Weights may thereby be either determined or prevented.

And in Case any Person or Persons shall Withhold Pay or Receive any of the said Coins by any other Weights than such as shall be agreeable to the said Standard, they are to be proceeded against according to Law, as keepers and users of false and unlawful Weights.

And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command, That no Person (except the said Vincent Kidder) do presume to make, adjust or sell any of the said Money Weights to be used in this Kingdom for the future, upon pain of being proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the Twenty Fourth Day of July, 1714.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 11.
Vienna, July 21. A Number of Cannon, Mortars, Bullets, Bombs, with Stores of Ammunition, which are newly embarked on the Danube, are to pass up that River, in Order to be conveyed to the Places on the Frontier of France.

From the Paris Letter, dated Aug. 11.

Paris, Aug. 11. It is advised from Baden the 30th of July, that the Abbot Passionei was arrived there, and had begun to make Visits to the Ministers of France and of the Emperour, to whom he declared, that the Pope will not consent to have the Difference with the Duke of Modena referred to the Decision of the Diet of the Empire or of the Aulick Council: That his Imperial Majesty's Ministers still refused to acknowledge the King of Sicily, or to give up the Donations made in his Favour by the Emperours Leopold and Joseph. It is advised from Versailles the 30th, that the Marquis de Mari sailed from thence the 27th with large Supplies of Provisions and Ammunition for the Camp before Barcelona; from whence we have received the following Particulars by Letters of the 25th.

This Morning (say those Letters) at Break of Day, we began to make a great Fire upon the Place with 74 Cannon and 24 Mortars, tars, (besides which a Battery of 10 Cannon of 36 pound Ball which will begin to fire to Morrow.) The Marshal Duke of Berwick to encourage the Gunners to do their Duty well, gave them 30 Pistoles, and lets them fire as much as they will. The Battery that is at most Distance from the Place, is but 120 Toises from the Wall, and the others are but 100 Toises from it: Above 30 Cannon of these last Batteries command the Foot of the Wall, and the principal Attack is against the Curtain between the Bastion of St. Clare, and that of the new Gate, with such Fury, that if it be continued the Breach will soon be practicable, without our being obliged to change the Batteries. The Fire of the Besieged is very much diminished; yet they keep their Resolution to defend themselves well, as Deserters report; but if they delay a little longer to deliver up the Keys of the Town to the Duke of Berwick, they will have no Mercy shewn them. Most of the Vessels which were in the Port, have ranged themselves under Montjuy, and the Women which were under the Mole have retired thither likewise with their Children. This Morning a Waggon-load of Powder blew up by the falling of a Bomb among it, and killed or wounded about 15 Men. The rest of the French Troops are arrived in the Camp, where is plenty of Provisions: We have very expert Miners.

Other Letters of the 26th, say the Fire continued with the same Quickness, and that 12 Deserters were come over with their Officers well mounted. They add what follows. The Captain of an English Ship of War having entered Barcelona, to demand Satisfaction for the Insults made on divers Merchant-Ships of his Nation by the Caronian Privateers, was very well received, and all kind of Satisfaction was promised him. The chief Leaders of the Rebels made use of that Opportunity to persuade the People that the Queen of England takes them under her Protection, and that they will soon find the Effects of it. That Captain came afterwards and dined with the Marshal Duke of Berwick, and told him, that in a Conference which he had with the principal Men of the Town, he had observed, that they were willing to enter into some Treaty of Accommodation, but could not obtain to be heard, and feared that if they yielded at Discretion they should be punished; the Marshal replied, that however that was the only thing they would be allowed to do. Accordingly Yesterday the Marshal ordered, that if they should send out any Drummer or Trumpeter, he should be stopped at the Head of the Trenches and not be suffered to pass further; and that no Answer shall be returned when they shall beat a Parley.

The King has settled the Household of the Dutchess of Berry; and besides a Company of Swiss-Guards his Majesty has given her the Choice of 30 Men out of the two Companies of Guards belonging to the late Duke of Berry, with a Brigadier and two Subaltern Officers, to form another Company.
